TEPSA ACADEMY 2023

EU CLIMATE & ENERGY POLICIES

19–23 June 2023, Brussels

The Academy offers a unique combination of theory and practice, with lectures by renowned academics, meetings with policy practitioners, and hands-on training under the academic coordination of leading security and climate policy expert Aleksandra Palkova (Latvian Institute of International Affairs).

By attending this Academy, you will:

- Acquire and deepen your knowledge of EU climate policies, gaining valuable insights into the practicalities of policy-making in Brussels;
- Visit key institutions, meet high-level professionals and learn from their experiences;
- Meet and exchange views with students from different disciplinary and national backgrounds;
- Access networking opportunities with high level professionals from EU institutions, academia and think tanks;
- Improve your analytical and argumentative skills;
- Enhance your employability.

Academic Coordinator:

ALEKSANDRA PALKOVA

*Latvian Institute of International Affairs &
European Council on Foreign Relations*

DATES, LOCATION AND FORMAT OF THE ACADEMY

The Academy is a 5-day event, held in Brussels from Monday 19 to Friday 23 June 2023. Full participation to all elements of the programme is compulsory. You will receive a certificate of attendance on the final day.

The first four days will be devoted to attending expert lectures, panel debates, and meeting practitioners from key EU institutions, think tanks, and non-profits, to complement the insights gained during the lectures. Participants will also have the opportunity to attend a networking and career event and visit selected EU institutions.

The last day will be devoted to the hands-on training on positive lobbying. Throughout the week, dedicated sessions for analysis and discussion in the group will be provided to allow participants to reflect critically on the insights gained during the lectures and meetings.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The TEPSA Academy is designed as an interdisciplinary seminar and is open to students and recent graduates from different disciplines (e.g. Political Science, European Studies, International Relations, Law, Economics, etc.) interested in learning more about EU climate and energy policies. A review committee will select participants.

To apply, please send the following documents to TEPSA's Project Manager Eva Ribera (eva.ribera@tepsa.eu) and TEPSA's Project Assistant Arthur Beau (arthur.beau@tepsa.eu):

- Your CV;
- A one-page cover letter explaining your motivation to participate in the Academy.

Applications are open to both EU and non-EU citizens, but only participants travelling from and to EU Member States will be eligible to receive a reimbursement of their travel expenses. Applications are open until Sunday, 7 May 2023, at midnight. Early applications are highly encouraged, as they will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

The participation fee is € 300 (€ 250 for the 4-day seminar and € 50 for the 1-day skills lab). After the selection decision has been communicated on Wednesday, 17 May 2023, participants will have one week to transfer the participation fee. Failure to transfer the fee in time will result in exclusion from the Academy. In case of non-participation, the fee cannot be refunded.

Participants will receive a reimbursement for their travel and accommodation costs up to € 250 upon presentation of the original receipts and tickets.

The modalities of the Academy may change according to Belgian COVID-19 restriction measures

ABOUT TEPSA:

The Trans European Policy Studies Association (TEPSA) was established in 1974 as the first transnational research network in the field of EU affairs. It comprises leading research institutes throughout Europe, with an office in Brussels. Its aim is to provide high-quality research on European integration to stimulate discussion on policies and political options for Europe. This is achieved by the interaction between the European and national institutions as well as the academic and research community. TEPSA is active on a wide range of research topics, focusing on differentiated integration, the EU's external relations, democratic participation and citizens' engagement.
